Union Station Facts:

• 1927 - Union Station Opens

• 1975 - Designated a National Historic Site
Union Station Facts:

- Toronto’s Transportation hub for VIA Rail, GO Transit and TTC
- 43 million GO Transit passengers
- 20 million TTC subway passengers
- 2.4 million VIA Rail passengers
- Total of 65 million passengers annually
- Union Station handles twice as many passengers annually as Pearson International Airport
Union Station Facts: GO Transit

- Union Station accommodates 165,000 GO Transit train and bus passengers daily

- Daily passenger numbers will double over the next 20 years as GO Transit’s service expansion plans are realized
Union Station Facts: VIA Rail

- Union Station is VIA’s busiest station
- 50% of all VIA passengers use Union Station
Union Station Facts: TTC

- Union Station subway station is the 4th busiest station in the TTC system
- 75,000 passengers per day
Union Station Areas:

• Existing Gross Floor Area – 822,000 SF
• Proposed Gross Floor Area – 936,000 SF
• Revitalization will increase the GO Transit Concourse Area from 30,000 SF to 110,000 SF
• Revitalization will increase Commercial Retail Space from 35,000 SF to 165,000 SF
Union Station
Public Objectives

• Transportation Hub
• Heritage Destination
• Pedestrian Flow
• Environmental Benefits
• Retail / Revenue Enhancement
Union Station Participants

- City of Toronto
- GO / Metrolinx
- VIA
- Transport Canada
- Head Lessee
Context Plan
PATH Routes
PATH Routes

Proposed Northwest PATH

New Union Station Routes

Existing PATH
GO Transit Train Shed Atrium Roof
dig down
Extent of Dig Down
Existing Typical Building Section

Existing Train Platform Level

Existing Floor Level
Proposed Typical Building Section

- Existing Train Platform Level
- Existing Floor Level
- New Lowered Floor Level
- New GO Transit Concourse
Union Station plans
Great Hall / Concourse Level
Pedestrian Retail / Promenade Level
Union Station staging
Construction Staging
Construction Staging
Construction Staging

PATH / northwest passage
GO TRANSIT BAY STREET CONCOURSE